

Reading Bingo Directions

Reading is an essential skill to have. Taking the opportunity to read a variety of genres will help you open your mind to the wonderful worlds books and their stories can take you to.

1. Using your bingo card pick a genre of a book to read.
2. Once you have selected a book write the title & the author on the square containing that genre.
3. Read the book., finish the book.
4. Once completed fill out the Reading Bingo Report Form. Be sure the form is completely filled out including:
 1. Your name (you want credit for your work don't you?) & date.
 2. Title of the book.
 3. The author of the book.
 4. How many pages you read.
 5. Genre of the book.
 6. Give a summary. It needs to be a minimum of 10 COMPLETE sentences.
 7. Tell if you liked/didn't like the book & why.
 8. Rate the book
5. The book needs to be more than 150 pages. If you have any questions about this ask me.
6. When your form is done, turn it in & ask me to sign off on your square.
7. Have fun!!!

Books we read as a class do not count. I want you to enjoy the endless variety of books that are available to you.

Those who complete a line either up/down, right/left, or diagonal will join me for a celebration of some type at the end of the quarter.

Don't forget to write a "memorable/great" quote from your book on the book recommendation blog wall.

Lets have fun on this adventure with books together.
